Freedom Playground

A playground for ALL children

The Freedom Playground is a new children's playground that allows kids of "all abilities" to play together in Haverford Township, Delaware County! The play structure, known as Freedom Playground, will be a state of the art, custom-built play structure made from composite lumber. Freedom Playground will cater to children of all abilities including autism, spina bifida, sensory issues, allergies, and more giving them 100% accessibility to all areas of the play structure.
